Many Former Republicans Join Bull Moose—Rhinehart Is President.

Over 100 persons in response to the call of the Bull Moose gathered at the court house Friday night. Eighty of them for the most part, staunch Republicans of years standing, shed the toga of Republicanism, trampled it in the dust, adorned the antlers of the Bull Moose, and voicing the battle cry of the "Progressives," went forth for Roosevelt and Johnson as the two greatest types of that great new party. The conversion from Republicanism to that of "Progressivism," was sudden, rapid, and complete. A. S. Goen, who has officiated as chairman of numerous Republican gatherings and conventions, who has acted as a delegate to various national conventions held at Chicago, pronounced the benediction on the converts which forever severed ties that bound those Republicans to that party. "The Republican party is organized," declared Mr. Goen, "is not worthy of the support of the American people."

Rhinehart Is President.
Robert H. Rhinehart, familiarly known as "Bob" Rhinehart, was unanimously chosen as president, will be the guiding spirit of the new party, which will be known as the Roosevelt-Johnson Progressive club, the name adopted after a consideration of several. The Roosevelt-Johnson club will not take any part in local politics as was stated by Mr. Goen. The main purpose of the members and the club as a whole is to poll as many votes as possible for the men whose names have been placed on the club's banner. Incidentally, the members want it understood that it is not a Republican, Democratic, Socialist, Populist, or any other party organization. It is solely and purely a Progressive club, they said, and organized in behalf of Roosevelt and Johnson the proclaimed leaders of the Progressive movement. More than 100 persons have already signed the membership list, and before the general election in November it is expected there will be more than 2000. Anyhow that is the slogan adopted by the members of the club Saturday night, to secure as many members as possible.

After the organization of the club Saturday night some erstwhile Republicans, who still held offices in that party, desired to know what they should do. They wanted to know if a resignation was in order.

Not Republicans Says Baum.
That it was not a Republican club was forcibly brought home to a member, J. E. Rhein, when he rose to say that his experiences with the local Republicans was that they would need a great deal of "hot ice," an article he had been reading about a few days previous. Another member O. H. Baum got on his feet and declared that they were not meeting as Republicans, and the motion had nothing to do with that party. The first member promptly subsided, after saying that he thought there was nothing in a name and rose would as well as sweat if it were a Roosevelt. S. Engelking, assistant United States district attorney, was the speaker at the evening. When Mr. Engelking placed the name of Dr. H. E. Stevenson in nomination for the vice presidency of the club, he paid the nominee a glowing tribute. Dr. Stevenson was unanimously elected. Vincent Woodbury, whose name has been proposed first, withdrew from the race. Mr. Woodbury was subsequently elected second vice president.

The other officers elected were as follows: A. H. Anderson, secretary. The position was offered to C. A. Kinne, who stated that he would not have the time to devote to the office. U. S. Stewart was elected treasurer. A committee composed of S. Engelking, S. J. Pruden, and D. R. Smith, was appointed to draft the bylaws of the organization. The meeting Saturday night was called to order by S. J. Pruden, and C. A. Kinne was chosen as chairman. C. A. Kinne was elected temporary secretary.

Will Meet September 6.
After the session, president Rhinehart announced that the next meeting of the club would be held on the night of September 6 at a place to be selected later, at which time the bylaws, as drawn by the committee, will be submitted and passed on. The matter of appointing an executive committee which came up for discussion Saturday night was delayed until a future time. The members of that committee will probably be appointed by the president and will be composed of the chairman later to be selected from each of the 25 precincts.

ROOSEVELT MAY GO BEFORE COMMITTEE

It Is Said He Has Consented to Take Stand to Answer Archbold Charges.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 24.—It is believed here that Col. Roosevelt will take the stand within a few days before the senate subcommittee investigating campaign expenditures, to answer the charges made by John D. Archbold that Mr. Roosevelt had knowledge of the use of the Standard Oil money in his campaign in 1904.

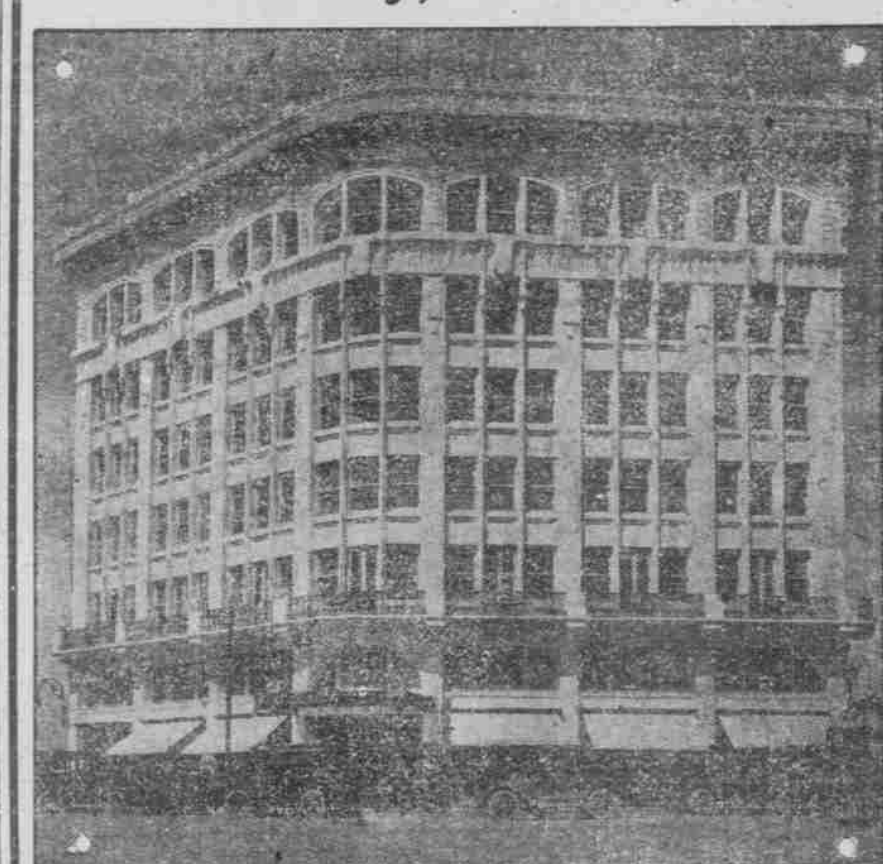

Although Col. Roosevelt publicly stated that it was absurd for him to appear before the senate committee, it is understood he has consented to take the stand if desired, in view of the

If You Have a Daughter For Whom You Desire the World's Best

THERE is no reason why you should send your daughter further away than El Paso to give her the best schooling obtainable anywhere. It may be worth a good deal to you to know that your little girl is always near you and yet is receiving the best of friendly supervision and skilful training in mind and body under experienced teachers of the first rank. At any rate, investigate before you make definite plans. The EL PASO SCHOOL FOR GIRLS is at 1111 Terrace street in Sunset Heights, telephone 2929, and the Principals, Miss Slater and Miss Tafel, will not only be glad to talk over with you your plans for your daughter's schooling, but will also refer you by permission to many persons whose opinions you would probably value in helping you to reach a decision. The school can make provision for a girl of any age in any grade, in either Boarding or Day School department, or in Special work, such as Music or Physical Culture. Write for a Catalog and further information.
